 TAMMY: "Seeing who?"
 BRICK: "I think it's the insurance salesmen."
 TAMMY: "Oh, you're so silly. Come on, let's keep looking for fingertips."
 (BRICK starts touching TAMMY's face and shoulders, as if to make sure she's real.)
 TAMMY (CONT'D): "Brick, you okay?"

J.D.: "I'd use longer screws if I were you."

JAMAL: "I don't need advice on how to repair the porch swing from the guy who broke it."

J.D.: "It wasn't my fault. Half of the blame is on you for telling me I couldn't do a somersault on it. And the rest of the blame falls on Jack Daniels for telling me I could."

(J.D. takes a swig of his drink and dances off towards the bar)
